English Tutor and freelance writer

"Soon after I started tutoring Kevin in 2020, he contracted COVID-19 and became seriously ill, missing over a month of school. With hard work, he made a full recovery. The whole time, he worked as hard as he could on his studies, never once making excuses, missing a tutoring session, or even arriving late. Ultimately, Kevin improved all key skills and did well in year 12 English. His tenacity, patience, and reliability would be an asset to any employer."
